Report of the Council for the year ending July, 1926

THE COUNCIL have pleasure in presenting the fifteenth Annual Report of the Society.

During the year, the Council has met nine times. Fifty-seven new members have been elected, and the total number of members and associates at the end of the official year (June 30th, 1926) was 385.

The Society has had the honour of retaining Miss Fanny Davies as President for a second year, who during her second twelve months of office gave members the great privilege of two pianoforte recitals, the first on March 6th and the second on October 16th. This latter date happened to be the forty-first anniversary of Miss Davies's first appearance in England (the first Crystal Palace concert of the season 1885-6, when she played the Beethoven Concerto in C, under Manns), in token whereof she began her S.W.M. programme with the solo which she had played on the former occasion (Romance in F sharp by Schumann and Gigue in B flat minor by Graun), and followed these by what she had played as an encore at her first "Monday Pop" a fortnight later (Characteristic Piece in E major, Op. 7, No. 7, by Mendelssohn).

It is a great pleasure to put on record the honour done to our President, as a representative Eminent Musician, by the Czecho-Slovakian Government, who invited her to attend as their guest the National Festival of Sokols, held in Prague this last summer.

It is also very gratifying to record the enthusiastic reception given to our former President, Miss Kathleen Schlesinger, at the Musical Conference at the Goetheareum in Dornach.

Early in the year, Lady Cooper had been obliged, owing to ill health, to resign the position of Chairman of Council, but the Council are glad to report that she is now in better health, and to express their gratitude to her for very kind assistance in a matter of finance.

THE LIBRARIES

During the year the S.W.M. LIBRARY has received a few gifts of music and books. Classifying and cataloguing have been kept up to date The sum of £4 10s. was spent in March in the acquisition of a representative collection of music to fill the worst gaps in the Library. £1 has recently been spent on mending materials, etc. This exhausts the Library Fund. Gifts of music and musical books will always be welcomed, and contributions to the Fund are particularly desired.

The following list shows the additions purchased with the Library Fund :—

WAGNER	Siegfried, Götterdämmerung	Vocal Scores
VERDI	Falstaff, Otello
DEBUSSY	String Quartet	Parts
RAVEL	" "
DVORAK	New World Symphony	Score
DEBUSSY	Preludes for Piano (complete in two volumes)
SCRIABIN	Twenty-four Preludes, Op. 11
	Fourth Sonata, Op. 30
DOWLAND	Two volumes of 50 Songs (ed. Fellowes)
GRIEG	Two volumes of Songs
MOZART	Violin part of Sonatas for Violin and Pianoforte (to complete the volume already in the Library)

COBBETT LENDING LIBRARY OF BRITISH CHAMBER MUSIC

The Violin Sonata of Dame Ethel Smyth (Hon. Vice-President S.W.M.) has been added to the Cobbett Library.

The Chamber Music Section are the chief borrowers from both the Libraries, and the Council wish to urge Members in general to make a greater use of the material at their disposal.

THE CHAMBER MUSIC SECTION

Two Chamber Music Rallys have been held during the year. The first of these Meetings took place on December 19th, when Miss Katharine Kendall was so good as to give the Section the benefit of her invaluable criticism and advice. The Players having enunciated plenty of subjects for the development of criticism, and Miss Kendall having recapitulated her admirable remarks, this First Movement concluded with an agreeable Coda, based upon a Christmas present from the Section to Miss Stella Fife. Their appreciation of her unfailing energy in organisation and her personal devotion to the cause of Chamber Music found expression in the choice of two gifts eminently suitable for a string player—a mahogany music stand and a standard lamp and lampshade.

The next Rally had something of the nature of a Scherzo, being in the experimental form of a Sight-reading festival, at which the sporting instincts as well as the musical abilities of the players were tested. It was thought that having to form themselves into a quartet at a moment's notice and take guidance with unfamiliar music, and to carry on through the "non-stop" run which formed the second test of each party, would prove stimulating to resourcefulness, leadership, presence of mind, sympathy, quickness of ear, and various other qualities essential to good ensemble playing. Rowena Franklin and Katharine Eggar acted as adjudicators, and the hope of winning a miniature score helped to sustain the participants in this novel adventure. About fifteen parties took part at each meeting.

One specially useful piece of work done by members is worthy of record. Miss K. Douglas-Smith reports that during the past year she has arranged no less than six Concerts for the patients at the Garrett Anderson Hospital, with the help of members of the Chamber Music Section and a few others, the programmes consisting mainly of quartets and trios. It is most satisfactory to hear that these Concerts have not only given great pleasure, but that they have had a marked effect for good upon the health of the patients.

INFORMAL "AT HOMES"

Members having expressed satisfaction with the experiment of an Informal Meeting for Members' Music in the autumn, the Council gladly agreed to a suggestion of the Membership Sub-committee to institute Informal "At Homes" under hostess-ship, to give members the opportunity of making music together without the anxiety of publicity, and to encourage them to take an interest in each other's compositions. Two of these have been held, three members of the Membership Committee, Mrs. Alexander, Miss Alma Goatley and Lady Harris, acting as hostesses on both occasions. Tea was most generously provided by Lady Harris for the first "At Home," and by Mrs. Alexander for the second, while Miss Goatley kindly superintended the complications of the impromptu musical programme each time. Two very enjoyable parties resulted, but lest there should be any misunderstanding, it is necessary to remind members that these Informal "At Homes" are limited strictly to members, and that unless the informal, private and friendly character of such meetings is scrupulously preserved, there is no point in having them.

The Monthly, and other, Meetings for the Year have been as follows :—

AUTUMN TERM, 1925

October 24th—Miss Cecilia Brenner gave a Lecture, with her own illustrations, on "Dutch Folk Songs."

November 3rd—Informal Meeting for members only.

November 21st—The Fourteenth Annual General Meeting, followed by a short programme of Pianoforte Solos by Miss Evelyn Suart, and Songs to the Celtic Harp, by Miss Janet Campbell Fisher.

December 9th—Miss Jessie Allport, Manager of the Women's Department of the Friends' Provident and Century Life Office, spoke on "Insurance as an aid to Independence." This was followed by a short humorous dramatic sketch, entitled "The Final Rehearsal of the Little Witenham Orchestra," written, produced and acted by members of the Chamber Music Section.

SPRING TERM, 1926

January 30th and February 6th—Dr. W. A. Aikin gave two Lectures on "The Science of Phonology as applied to Voice Training."

February 20th—Mr. Terrick Williams, A.R.A., gave a Lecture entitled "A Visit to the National Gallery with a Painter."

March 6th—A Pianoforte Recital by the President.

March 27th—Concert by the Chamber Music Section. The programme included a Bach Piano Concerto, played by Christine Chalmers, and Songs sung by Sybil Scanes, accompanied by String Orchestra. Conductors : Dorothy Erhart and Dora Feltham.

SUMMER TERM, 1926

May 29th—An Informal "At Home." Hostesses : Mrs. Alexander, Miss Alma Goatley, and Lady Harris.

June 19th (postponed from May 15th, on account of the General Strike) —"A Demonstration, with Explanations, of the Jacques Dalcroze method of Eurhythmics," by Miss Fiona McCleary and Miss Anne Driver, assisted by graduates of the London Dalcroze School.

July 10th—The Society's Fifteenth Birthday Party, with programme of new works by members. These included Songs by E. Monica Smith, Mary Sheldon and Audrey Heath, sung by Miss Gladys Moger ; Movements from Two Trios for Piano, Violin and 'Cello, by K. Dorothy Fox and Agnes Lambert, played by Miss Amy Kemp, Miss Dorothea Walenn and Miss Stella Fife ; Violoncello Solo, "Melody," by Fiona McCleary, played by Miss Yvonne Morris (guest) and the Composer, who also played three short Piano Solos of her own composition ; Songs by Kathleen Lucas, Ida Seymour and Katharine Eggar, sung by Mr. Gilbert Bailey (guest). The latter also sang a group of old English songs.

THE FOURTEENTH ANNUAL COMPOSERS' CONFERENCE

was held on Friday and Saturday, June 25th and 26th. The distinguished guest on this occasion was, a woman composer, Miss Rebecca Clarke, who read a highly interesting paper on "The Conditions of Music in America," which was followed by one from Miss Edith Reed (Editor of "Music and Youth" and "Panpipes"), on her recent experiences of American Musical Education. Miss Katharine Eggar was Chairman at this meeting, and Mrs. Elsa Cohen at the Saturday meeting for Papers by Members. These were by Mrs. Mary Sheldon, on "Song-writing"; Mrs. B. J. Dale, on "Some Thoughts on the Study of Composition"; and Miss Dorothy Erhart, on "The Training of the Composer's Ear," and a very animated and profitable discussion was maintained.

OBITUARY

The Society has with great regret to record the death of Miss Hilda Grieveson, at one time Liza Lehmann Scholar, and for several years "Cobbett" Librarian. She was a pupil of the late Dr. Charles Wood, and the Society has from time to time given performances of her compositions of various kinds, a considerable number of which are now in print.

OTHER MATTERS

On March 28th the Council invited Mr. Joseph Ivimey to lay before them the details of his scheme for providing a Central Club House for Musicians, with Concert Hall, Conference Room, Library and Residential Club included, in consequence of which the Society undertook to circularise its members with the particulars of the project.

Mr. Nicholas Gatty asked the Council to allow the Society's name to appear as supporting the Isidore de Lara Scheme for National Opera. The Hon. Secretary accordingly attended the public meeting held in June in support of the scheme, and reported to Council, who decided that while willing that individual members should give their support to the idea, it would not be advisable for the S.W.M. as such to pledge itself to the support of the undertaking.

The Council wish to acknowledge with much gratitude the installation of an excellent gas-fire in the office by a member of the Council, which has made a great difference to the daily comfort of the Secretary, and the occasional comfort of the other temporary visitors to the office. Another much appreciated gift was a donation from Mr. Fox, father of Miss K. Dorothy Fox, towards a typewriter—a long and very badly-needed adjunct to the work of the office.

Thanks are also cordially offered to Mr. and Mrs. Cobbett and Mrs. Jessop for hospitality on the occasion of the Chamber Music Reading Rally, and to Mr. and Mrs. Scott, for allowing the meeting with Mr. Ivimey to take place at their house.
